

IN APALAN
LVB
There were stars
And Sage'd I
You called night transparent
And saw a skeleton of stars.

When I had blood
A good to be in
You called that day opaque
And love-chase entrails to the sun.

With tonight
In your arms
You christened Daughter
And saw love shining thru my skull.

WHEN THE WORD IS LOVE
LVB
Love the word
With the word
But the beloved word
In the mouth
On the face
In the background

The message here
Wherefore the meaning
Love is hope
But, in our company
There is hope
Love is the dream
Love is the dream
And in the final day
In the night, when
Thoughts are changed
Thoughts are changed
Thoughts are changed
